A Jumping the Broom for couples who want to honor their Irish heritage at their wedding. There are 45 million Americans of Irish descent and, more than ever, they are fervent in their love for Ireland. This lovely guide to creating an Irish wedding will help couples celebrate their wedding vows. Irish Wedding Traditions is filled with long-forgotten historical and contemporary Irish touches from vows and rituals to symbolic flowers, food, spirits, and song. In addition there are chapters on registering for gifts, dressing for the occasion, and designing the perfect Irish wedding invitation, as well as suggestions for tying the knot or honeymooning on the Emerald Isle. This one-of-a-kind guide will help future brides and grooms no matter what their heritage incorporate the lovely accents of Irish culture into their very own wedding.
