What would you do if the police arrested your lover for murdering someone before realizing that the alleged victim was still alive? Frantic after Neil's arrest for murder, Gina gathers Greg and Connor to fight for his release. The information she receives further teaches her that human connections can sometimes be gentle but can also be confusing. Sorting out the information with the two attorneys is one thing but they'll soon be seeking lost information to correct as well as connect. Having known Neil for ten years, Greg gladly offers assistance. Will he still treat Gina as a sub after their shared play? Gina must now trust this newfound Dom, who helped teach her within play, to offer pearls of wisdom regarding Carol to the police. Will they find the required proof to release Neil? What happens when Greg's focus falls on Gina? Will Neil allow Greg to continue teaching her? Disclaimer: The material in this book is for mature audiences only and contains graphic sexual content.
