Amethyst is your average everyday 28 year old girl. She has friends, she works in a bar called underworld and rents a house in Roswell with her childhood friend Marie. One mysterious night she discovers she has a secret admirer watching her from afar. Leaving her crimson red roses while she sleeps. She thinks it's her ex boyfriend coming back to her to reclaim his love. But what she doesn't know is that the secret admirer is an ancient vampire who has fallen deeply and obsessively in love with her. Her world spirals into chaos when she discovers that not only is it not her ex boyfriend but a vampire named Lucien. The love he has for her is a forbidden love, to fall for a human is against the supernatural world's code. But when she shows no fear towards him they discover that their love is eternal. Their love for one another does not come without a price. Little do they know she has a destiny of her own and it does not include being turned into the undead.
