And it continues... DJ situation can only go in one direction... Downhill! Still running his drug empire he's determined to be more than just your average drug dealer. Even more than ever he's become more envious of his little brother and his growing street credit and him growing to be more than the man that he will ever be. JJ being the independent person that he is wants to make his problems go away without the help of family. How will DJ keep JJ from rising to the top and where will his greedy ways land him? Guess you'll have to read to find out how things can go From Sugar to Shit!
