The story is about Tanya, who recently passed her most precious time of life; teenage time. Still she has some minor effect of that age on her attitude that reflects on her behavior and life style. The story is not about any fighting between friends and lover but emotions. When a young girl find her feelings fighting on her inner mid and she is confused about what exactly her heart says. When best buddy turns into a total new person all on a sudden what goes through one's mind? When a girl found her friend suffering because of any romantic relationship, does she dare to get committed in any romantic relationship one her own life? Relations between Tanya and her step-mother, Tanya and her friends are the main concept of the story. But with the time being some confusion comes when any romantic relationship tries to reign in Tanya's heart. As you go deep of the story you will find out Tanya's inner feelings inside your own mind.
